

Looking for something fun to do in September? Try one of these free events!

World of Water!! Saturday, September 9th, 12 – 4 pm Chalco Hills Recreation Area 8901 S. 154th St

Learn about the importance of what is in our lives and community while enjoying demonstrations, science experiments, games, and canoe rides.

Resilience: The Biology of Stress and the Science of Hope – Saturday, September 9th, 10:30 am – 12 noon, Thanksgiving Church

Storytime – EVERY Saturday, 11:00 – 11:30, Barnes and Noble at Crossroads Mall

Crafts for Kids at Lakeshore Learning –

EVERY Saturday, 11 am – 3 pm, 1200 W.

Center road

Where books and Art meet – EVERY Saturday, 2:30 – 3:30 pm, South Omaha Library

Hand-on-Habitat at Fontenelle Forest –

Saturday, September 15th, 9:30 – 11 am, 1111 Bellevue

Blvd.

Local Farmers Markets – EVERY Saturday, 8 am – 12 noon, Old Market

EVERY Sunday, 9 am – 1 pm, Aksarben Village

EVERY Thursday, 6 pm – 8 pm, Rockbrook Village

30th Annual Midwest Regional Chevelle Show – Friday, September 22nd, All Day, Courtyard Marriot.

National Alpaca Farm Days - Saturday, September 23rd, 9 am – 5 pm, Alpacas of the Heartland in Fort Calhoun

Small Guy Promotions Community Expo – Saturday, September 30th, 2 pm – 6 pm, Salvation Army Kroc Center - Meet and shop local vendors

